

Winchester Hospital First in State to Earn Magnet Recognition Three Times

The American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), the credentialing arm of the American Nurses Association, announced on Monday, January 14, the redesignation of Winchester Hospital with its highest honor for excellence in nursing: the ANCC Magnet Recognition®. Winchester Hospital is the first hospital in Massachusetts to earn this prestigious achievement three times. Winchester Hospital was first honored in 2003, becoming the first community hospital in Massachusetts to be named a Magnet® hospital.

