Joyce C. Clifford, Leadership Seminar

Ms. Clifford was a great nursing leader. Your contribution to the Joyce C Clifford Endowment Fund will support the ONL's Leadership Seminars. Your donation will provide faculty stipends, speaker honoraria, educational materials, and tuition assistance for nurses aspiring to be a nursing leader for the future.

Ms. Clifford's Legacy

Joyce C. Clifford, PhD, RN, FAAN was the Founder, President, and CEO of the Institute for Nursing Healthcare Leadership (IHL), representing the Consortium of Harvard-Affiliated Nursing Services (CHANS). Ms. Clifford served as Senior Vice President and Nurse-in-Chief at the former Beth Israel Hospital for more than 25 years. She held appointments as lecturer at Harvard Medical School, visiting scholar at Boston College School of Nursing, Past President of AONE American Academy of Nursing Living Legend, and many other prestigious positions. Ms. Clifford is credited with being the first nursing leader to implement primary nursing throughout a hospital, advocating for the full professionalization of the nursing role.
